Dear [Redacted]

Reference is made to your telephone conversation on this date with Supervisor [Redacted] of my office.

A source who has furnished reliable information in the past has advised that General Edwin A. Source further advised that General WALKER is aligned with the John Birch Society and that this fact will definitely be made public, presumably during the expected appearance of the General before the Senate Sub-Committee on Internal Security and/or the "Project Alert."

Source further advised that, contrary to some newspaper speculation, there is no indication that General WALKER intends to run for office, but to the contrary, he is being counselled by associates and friends to refrain from that course and take up, on a sporadic basis, judiciously selected invitations to speak in different parts of the country.

INFORMATION CONCERNING

A source which has furnished reliable information in the past has advised that all tickets have been sold out for the speech by General Walker January 11, 1962, at Los Angeles Sports Arena, capacity approximately 14,000, under sponsorship of Freedom Forum of First Congregational Church, Los Angeles. The topic of Walker's address is "Make Mine Freedom." Source advised that about 50 persons greeted Walker at Los Angeles Airport morning of January 10, 1962, and Walker appeared later in taped interview on George Putnam TV news review January 10, 1962, stating, among other things, that he joined John Birch Society while commanding U. S. troops at Little Rock, Arkansas, in 1959. ✓

Lack of U.S. Leadership In Politics Hit by Walker

Resigned Major Gen. Edwin A. Walker, key figure in the controversy over alleged muzzling of top military officers, charged both major political parties have lacked "responsible leadership for the last 16 or maybe 28 years."

Walker, often appearing agitated, freely admitted during a stormy news conference yesterday at the Biltmore Hotel that he is a member of the ultra-conservative John Birch Society.

He vehemently denied charges that he tried to tell soldiers under his command how to vote.

He said his troop information program in Germany that triggered the storm over "muzzling the military" was designed only "to bring out the individual in each soldier."

Walker was relieved of his divisional command and reassigned after being accused of indoctrinating his troops with what was termed Birch Society teachings.

Asked by newsmen if he was a Birch member, he replied:

"I am a member. If I wasn't a member today, I would seriously consider becoming one in opposition to anti-anti-communists."

He said he joined the Birch group in 1959 while commanding of the Arkansas Military District in Little Rock.

DIRE PERIL

The 35-year-old West Point graduate, in Los Angeles for an address tomorrow night at the Sports Arena, singled out former President Dwight Eisenhower as being primarily responsible for "the dire peril" facing the nation from the communists.

But, he added, President Kennedy and former Presidents Harry S. Truman and Franklin D. Roosevelt must share the blame.

Asked about former Vice President Richard M. Nixon's statement that both major parties ought to shun extremes of both the right and the left, Walker commented:

"I would like to see someone start down the middle of one of your streets and see what happened to him."

"Neither party has had responsible leadership for the last 16 or maybe 28 years. We've had all we need of the middle of the road leadership."

Walker, who resigned from the Army following his reassignment, sparred with newsmen over a ban on television cameras at his speech tonight sponsored by the freedom club of First Congregational Church.

CITES RIGHTS

"I have the right of freedom of speech," he declared. "And that includes to whom, where and when I speak."

He charged the Columbia

Broadcasting System station in Dallas, Tex., cut off the sound while televising his speech there.

The blue-eyed, brown-haired one-time career soldier lashed out at the press in general for what he called not supporting "the cause of freedom" and not making "clear to us our responsibility to all the countries of the world."

Queried over possible political intentions, Walker said he has made no "commitments" to run for office or to support any candidates.

However, when asked if he would support Los Angeles County congressmen Edgar Hiestand and John Rousselot, both avowed Birch Society members, he answered:

"You can answer that better than I."

Walker declared every organization in the nation, including the press and the church, is infiltrated by communists.

He accused the State Department of helping Fidel Castro take over Cuba. "There were members of the State Department who had a common interest in Castro's take over of Cuba," Walker said.

Walker Carries His Crusade to Southland

Former General Will Speak Tonight on What He Calls His War in Freedom Cause

Edwin A. Walker, who gave up the stars of a major general to wage war for what he defines as the cause of freedom, brought his crusade to Los Angeles Wednesday.

He was welcomed at International Airport by a cheering crowd of about 50.

He faced the press in two conferences, with the discomfort of a man more accustomed to issuing orders than answering questions.

At 7:30 p.m. today in the Sports Arena he will make his first West Coast speech since his controversial military career came to an end, and the sponsoring Freedom Club of the First Congregational Church has promised a capacity audience of 15,000.

Loud Conference

In a long and often loud conference at the Biltmore, Walker and newsmen bickered repeatedly over questions and answers but the former general made these principal points:

1—This country has "retreated from victory" for 16 years and he holds former President Eisenhower responsible to the extent that a "dire peril" referred to by President Kennedy exists.

2—Neither political party has provided proper leadership for those 16 years and perhaps for 28 years.

Birch Member

3—He has been a member of the John Birch Society since May of 1959, but even if he weren't he would become one to combat the current "anti-anti-communism."

4—American soldiers will fight but today they must "fight for the right to fight."

5—There are "all sorts of people" in the U.S. government who assist the Communist cause "with or without intent" by reducing individual rights, states rights and national sovereignty.

6—He could, but wouldn't at this time, name a "few" Communist sympathizers in the State Department. But there are many "all-out believers in Socialism, which is really no different."

7—The Communists haven't failed to infiltrate anything in America, including the press. And the press has been misrepresenting the situation, this country's image — and himself.

8—He has "never told a soldier who to vote for." It would be difficult even for himself to say whether he is a Democrat or a Republican. And he has made no plans or commitments to run or campaign for anything except America.

Asked about former Vice President Nixon's advice to Republicans to shun extremists of both left and right, Walker said:

"I would hate to see someone start down one of your streets in the middle of the road and see what would happen to him."

Bucks Extremists

"If he (Nixon) is indicating 'middle-of-the-road' leadership, we have had enough of it. This country was not established by moderates. If it's superpatriots and extremists we need, I suggest we get them."

As for the Pentagon's announcement this week of a committee to study and advise on indoctrination of military personnel, Walker said:

"It's about time. It's badly needed. It's 15 years behind time."

Walker flew in from Tucson at 12:20 p.m. Wednesday aboard a Continental Airlines Viscount.

"Keep fighting, General," the crowd yelled, waving placards marked "Win With Walker" and "Walker 'Ism' Heap Big Patriot" and "We Want Walker."

"I can't help but fight and win," he shouted back.

before wading into the airport crowd to shake hands and sign autographs.

At one point he exchanged his Texas Stetson for a paper Uncle Sam hat and posed for photographers.

He joined the crowd singing "God Bless America."

Dozens of American flags waved in the crowd. As he reached the bottom of the steps from the plane he received a red, white and blue bouquet from Andre Papas;

On hand to greet him were Dr. L. A. Alesen, director emeritus of the Freedom Club; Gerald A. Sheppard, chairman of the executive committee of the Freedom

WELCOME FOR WALKER—Edwin A. Walker wears a paper Uncle Sam hat given to him by someone in Club; Wes Cameron on loan from the Ingram Paper Co. to help publicity for the program and Jim Bishop of Bishop and Associates, public relations firm, which has volunteered to handle publicity for the rally.

Uses Caution

In a brief airport interview Walker was cautious, answering questions only after lengthy pauses.

"I have no planned commitment at the moment," he said when asked about his political plans. He has been urged to run for the governorship of Texas and the Presidency of the United States.

"There's quite a bit of time left," he noted when quizzed about the deadline a cheering group of about 50 gathered to welcome him at airport. He will speak tonight at Sports Arena.

for filing in the gubernatorial race.

He said his topic tonight will be the military cause and its relation to the American people.

He said he had noted on his recent travels a rise in the patriotism of Americans and a demand of the people for their rights under the Constitution.

When pressed for details, he said he was referring to freedom and liberty when he mentioned Constitutional rights, and he mentioned particularly states' rights.

A car full of extra police was on duty at the airport but there was no disturbance.

The crowd gave three cheers and sang "God Bless America" as Walker drove off to the downtown press conference.

Public Must Meet Threat

Walker Warns on Reds Here, Abroad

Enemies on both the home front and abroad are equally detrimental to the cause of freedom, and aroused and informed American public must meet the threat.

This was the opinion expressed here by resigned Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker at a press conference in the Biltmore Hotel as he prepared to speak tonight at a meeting of the Freedom Club of the First Congregational Church in the Memorial Sports Arena.

REDS EVERYWHERE
General Walker charged Communists "have not failed to infiltrate" any segment of American institutions.

Asked specifically if he believes Communists have infiltrated any armed services, General Walker replied:

"The method here would not be successful—that is in infiltration of the military—but it would be in an effort to bring about separation of the military in the causes and purposes of freedom from the causes and purposes of the American people.

The General said, when probed on his political activities, that he is campaigning for America every day of my life.

MUM ON CAMPAIGN

When asked if he would campaign for the reelection to congress of his fellow John Birch Society members, Reps. John A. Rousselot and Edgar W. Hiestand, General Walker remained silent and he did in response to many questions.

General Walker evaded questions on whether he intends to run for governor of Texas and on whether he would lead a movement to organize a third political party to be composed of patriots and so-called right wingers.

GIFT OF ROSES

Among those greeting him at the airport here was Andrea Papas, 4-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Papas of Torrance, who presented the controversial Walker with a bouquet of roses.

Walker joined in with a chorus of "God Bless America" and immediately popped an Uncle Sam hat on his head and smiled broadly to the children's song "We Want Walker—We Want Walker." When asked if he had any regrets in quitting the Army for going "muzzling" after more than 32 years military service, Walker replied: "I should say no."

7,000 Arrive Early to Hear Walker Speak

A crowd of 7,000 persons was in the Sports Arena Thursday night half an hour before Edwin A. Walker made his first speech here under sponsorship of the Freedom Club of the First Congregational Church.

Walker resigned as a major general in the U.S. Army in November after a controversy over his alleged political activities with troops in Germany.

Admission at the arena was by $1 donation.

Many in the audience carried small American flags. Two large placards in the crowd read "We Want Walker."

Books on Sale

Books, including J. Edgar Hoover's "Masters of Deceit," and magazine subscriptions were for sale as well as a 25-cent booklet, "Censorship and Survival." It carries a complete text of the ex-general's remarks before the U.S. Senate Armed Service Committee and his picture on the cover.

A man who identified himself as Anthony Butkovich tethered a white horse outside the arena. When asked to explain its significance, he said:

"It is a visible sign and warning that American patriots intend to fight communism."

The program opened with the Pledge of Allegiance and the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner." After an invocation by the Rev. James W. Fifield Jr., pastor of the First Congregational Church, the audience sang "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

Walker's subject was "Make Mine Freedom."

A question and answer period followed his talk. Benediction was said by Rabbi Max E. Merritt.

TEXAS' OVATION

Walker Claims C.I.'s Aiding Communists

A near capacity crowd of 12,000 heard Mayor John A. Walker in the Los Angeles Sports Arena last night demand a revolution of our relationship to the United Nations.

The 56-year-old Texan, who left the Army last November rather than submit to what he termed censorship, stated: "My cause is not anti. It is pro-American—first, last and all ways."

"The day your son enters the military, he is no longer an American citizen. He is an agent of the United Nations."

U.S. soldiers are assisting and supporting the communists in Russia as members of the U.N. force in the Congo.

Walker spoke in "Make Africa Free" under auspices of the Freedom Club of the West Congregational Church of Los Angeles.

Regarding the charge that he attempted to incite troops in Germany, he said: "I was charged with nothing, I was found guilty of nothing, and I was punished for nothing."

He criticized retired Gen. Omar Bradley, saying that he holds to a doctrine of inactivity. He feared a mistake over Berlin between the United States and the Soviet Union. He said the recognition of East Germany is inevitable. He said the recognition of Red China is inevitable. I disagree with him on every point. I do not agree that it is even inevitable that we remain in the United Nations.

STANDING
At this point standing ovation in the audience. Some held signs which read "We are Communists" or "Walker for President."

In Walker's one-hour and 15 minute speech there was warning that Mexico is likely to follow Cuba in "Castroism." That national policies since 1945 have fostered the development of the "great Frankenstein monster" of communism and that through "political intrigue" U.S. and communist troops "are not really opposing forces."

Following Walker's address, questions from the floor were accepted. It was during this period that he expressed the belief that General Eisenhower could have saved "2,500,000 refugees from communist" who were "turned over Berlin between the United States and the Soviet Union. He said the recognition of East Germany is inevitable. He said the recognition of Red China is inevitable. I disagree with him on every point. I do not agree that it is even inevitable that we remain in the United Nations.

Walker said he believes U.S. troops could have taken the urban areas of Czechoslovakia. When asked "if we can't have a United Nations sign our lives rather than get out of it," he said: "I think it would be better to say to Russia: 'Russia has got to get out.'"

OPINION SAMPLED

A sampling of public opinion among people in the audience following the meeting produced these remarks:

Edward Lukens of West Los Angeles commented: "I'm proud that I'm a member of the John Birch Society and to come myself, with General Walker and Paul Robeson who was of the speaker's platform."

"I'm not for getting out of the U.S.," said Martin Stiles of Sylmar, "but I would vote for Walker if he runs for President."

David Walker of Beverly Hills commented: "General Walker was correct when he said that people called Communism an extremist. It takes an extremist to do things."

Dr. J. A. Alcorn, director emeritus of the Freedom Club, announced the club next month will have Robert Welch, founder of the John Birch Society, as guest speaker. It was also announced that proceeds of last night's meeting would go to the educational program of the Freedom Club. A dollar donation was asked of each person at the price of admission.

a doctrine of inevitabilism. He feared a mistake over Berlin between the United States and the Soviet Union. He said the recognition of East Germany is inevitable. He said the recognition of Red China is inevitable.

"I disagree with him on every opinion. I do not agree that it is even inevitable that we remain in the United Nations."

STANDING OVATION

This remark brought the crowd to their feet and roars of approval sounded throughout the arena for a few minutes.

Gen. Walker was introduced to the audience by Dr. L. A. Aleson, director emeritus of the Freedom Club of the First Congregational Church, who held the rally. Dr. James W. Fifield, Jr., read the invocation.

At the opening of the rally, an unknown friend of the general presented him with a headquarters command general's standard, which he waved to the plaudits of the crowd.

OWN STANDARDS

The crowd also waved their own standards which were captioned with many of the ideas and thoughts of the general. Some of them read: "Unmuzzle the Military," "Clean Out the State Department," "Communism is Our Enemy," "Freedom at Any Price," "Win With Walker" and many others.

Describing himself as a soldier without uniform, the 57-year-old flight man scored his deprecators.

"I spent 30 years fighting for my country and God willing I will spend 30 years more."

He said his cause is not anti anything but pro American—first, last and always.

"I have been accused of attacking the military," he said. "This is false. I am defending the military to defend you."

STATE DEPT

"I have no regret except one—that the efforts and sacrifice of these military forces have been so badly undermined by the State Department and their leadership that this great nation is in dire peril."

Gen. Walker charged that the government of the United States has allowed a "Frankenstein" to become an evil perpetrated, and in this country since 1933.

show you see subversive efforts in your schools and churches," he remarked.

They are led by Harvard and Columbia to brainwash our future soldiers.

Gen. Walker further charged collaboration by American forces with the Communists under the United Nations in Korea and in the recent actions in the UN operation in Katanga province. He commented:

"The only difference is that in Korea we fought Communists and in Katanga we are fighting anti-Communists. In Korea we secretly collaborated with the Communists. In Katanga we openly collaborated."

REBUKES IKE
Gen. Walker also rebuked former Pres. Eisenhower for his celebrated "coexistence with the Russians." Gen. Walker quoted Eisenhower as having stated that there is no alternative to peace.

"If there is no alternative to peace there is no need for the U.S. Army. You have been brainwashed."

"If you have listened to Eisenhower's coexistence plan, the truthfully means conversion plan."

Gen. Walker also took a swipe at India's recent liberation of Goa, remarking that the United States failure to act on Portugal's part might well have cost us a very important friend.

A question and answer period followed Walker's talk. Benediction was said by Rabbi Max E. Merritt. It was announced that the admittance charge would go to the educational program of the Freedom Club.

VISITS IN PALOS VERDES

Walker Tells Problems Confronting Americans

By FLOYD RINEHART
Daily Breeze Staff Writer

They grow 'em tall down Texas way.

And, Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker is no exception. He's tall in stature and in principle.

Since he resigned his commission as a U.S. Army general in November to actively participate in the American struggle against communism, Walker has skyrocketed to national and international prominence.

Following his anti-Communist talk Thursday night before 13,000 Southlanders at Los Angeles Sports Arena, Walker took time out to visit friends living in Palos Verdes Estates.

Walker was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Clay, 1404 Granvia Altamira.

Clay served as a major under Walker during World War II when Walker was in command of the 1st Special Service Force, combined Canadian-American paratroop group.

Two other members of the former special service group, James J. Kurzhai, San Francisco, and Dr. George Evashwick, Long Beach, and their wives also were on hand during the Friday night dinner party.

Walker has joined the ranks of other, now famous military men, who were "fired" from their posts for running against administrative political tide, including Gens. Douglas MacArthur and William (Billy) Mitchell.

Walker resigned his commission as a general last November, after he was relieved of his post as commandant of the 24th Infantry Division, stationed in Augsburg, West Germany.

He was relieved following charges he told his troops how to vote and indoctrinated them with John Birch Society anti-Communist material through a troop education project—Pro Blue Program.

During an exclusive interview with Walker, at the Clays home, he said the Pro Blue Program was an inspiration to the 24th Division.

Its basic intent was to re-establish sense of determination and inspire responsibility as soldier-citizens, loyalty to the U.S. and make friends with the Germans.

"During my 17 months of command with the 24th, probably 20,000 troops and 15,000 dependents took part in the Pro Blue Program," Walker said.

"However, the program was hampered by high turnover of troops—about 50 per cent annually."

Walker said the program would have taken another year to reach full effectiveness.

He said, although, the Pro Blue Program still exists, "it is a long way from what it was seven months ago."

"The seven persons responsible for its administration have been transferred elsewhere in the Army," said Walker.

Querried about his basic reasons for becoming a member of the John Birch Society, Walker said:

"It began when I served in the Korean War.

"It stems from a determination to find out why the U.S. was not allowed to win the Korean War."

Walker said in 1959 he began an investigation to find out which groups in the U.S. were most effective in carrying on causes of the U.S.

"I found in the John Birch Society a common cause, interest and purpose, directed to recognize and expose the enemy—communism," Walker said.

Walker also said if he were not a member of the society now, he would immediately join in opposition to anti anti-communism in the U.S.

Walker said the effectiveness of the John Birch Society is seen in resistance to it by Communists and left-wingers.

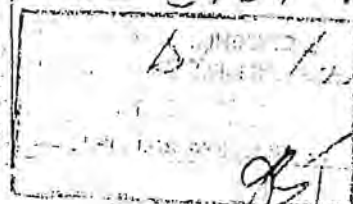

A reawakening of the American spirit is growing tremendously," according to Walker.

GLOBAL STRATEGY — Necessary to defeat the international Communist menace is emphasized by Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker visiting friends in Palos Verdes Estates, following an anti-Communist talk he gave Thursday in Los Angeles Sports Arena. Surrounding Walker are "True Americanism is making great strides now," he said.

"It is scaring the Communists to death and is indicated by the 1960 Communist Manifesto, calling for open fight against anti-Communist causes."

Walker said two other major targets of Communist subversion are military services and at least a generation of American youth.

Mexico Next

An observation made by Walker is that Mexico is marked by the Communists as the next Latin American country to go under its yoke.

In support of his statement, Walker said it is known from reports inside Mexico and the El Paso press, arms are being shipped to ex-president of Mexico, Cardenas, for revolutionary purposes.

"These arms are being landed in Mexico from the same sources which gave arms to Castro," Walker said.

In answer to queries in connection with his anti-Communist talk in the Sports Arena, Walker said popular response was beyond his greatest hopes.

"I didn't think the Sports Arena would be half filled; instead, there was a near capacity audience in attendance. It was tremendous."

Good Grasp

Walker said audience response to many points he made during the address is indicative Southern Californians have a good grasp of world conditions.

In addition, Walker said he has received similar responses from audiences in Dallas, Amarillo and the Southern states where he has spoken.

His next talk will be given Jan. 20 in Midland, Tex. The speech is planned for nationwide radio hookup and relay to Stuttgart, Germany.

People Dissatisfied

Walker said it is obvious persons throughout America are dissatisfied with present world conditions and government handling of problems in the life-or-death struggle against the Communist menace.

"American military commanders dare not move without first consulting political functionaries," Walker said.

He said it might be three days to a week before the green light is given from Washington to take action.

JBS Eyes on Walker

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12—Retired Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker's candidacy for governor of Texas appears to be unwelcome to conservatives on two counts.

It materially reduces his effectiveness as a witness before the Stennis subcommittee on the purported muzzling of the military.

He was slated to appear as a military hero who forfeited his retirement pay in order to crusade against communism. By this action, he has added that overtone of right-wing politics which had been charged against him by his civilian superiors.

The Walker candidacy will drain off funds which the conservatives badly need and will tend to identify them with the John Birch Society, of which the general admits he is a member. Many of them had taken up his cause against the Pentagon and had hoped to use him in various campaigns in and outside Texas.

On His Own

Walker refused to take political advice of any kind from his principal sponsor, Sen. Thurmond, South Carolina Democrat, and from the two Texas Republican members of Congress, Sen. Tower and Rep. Alger.

Thurmond is particularly embarrassed, as he demanded and got the Stennis hearings. Tower and Alger wanted him to postpone political action and possibly later run as a Republican.

No one here is particularly surprised that the general has chosen a course which seems to his would-be mentors unwise. From the moment he began his public appearances, it was clear he lacked political instinct either good or bad. The only role possible for him was that of earnest hero.

Pulling Power!

He told reporters when he filed in the Democratic primary last weekend as governor he believed he could help stop "the American retreat from victory based on a no-win policy."

American voters have still to elect a governor for foreign policy reasons, a fact of political life with which the very much better known Richard Nixon is wrestling in California.

The Walker candidacy will have meaning, however, in that it will afford some idea of the true pulling power of the issues promoted by the Birchers.

Press surveys indicate the sentiments they profess are more firmly and more widely rooted in Texas and California than anywhere else.

Walker will be running in an impressive field which includes Gov. Price Daniel and former Navy Secretary John Connolly, a protege of Vice President Johnson. If he does at all well, it will be significant.

Californians Watch

The Texas primary is May 5. One month later, men holding roughly the Walker views will be running in the California primary for the Republican nominations for governor and senator. Two incumbent Republican congressmen who are Birch Society members are also seeking re-nomination.

If the conservatives do well with Walker in Texas, it might mean a last minute, all-out effort will be forthcoming in California.

The Texas situation is, nationally speaking, a challenge to the Vice President. The Daniel candidacy is a blow to his hopes for Connolly, as incumbent governors are hard to beat.

Goldwater, Tower Knock Out id for Walker Rally Speech

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13—For Mr. Gen. Edwin A. Walker was knocked off the program of an forthcoming Madison Square Garden rally as a result of objections by Sens. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., and John C. Tower, R-Tex., it was learned today.

At the same time, Tower took the leadership in pressing the State Department to approve a visa for Katanga President Moise Tshombe to visit this country and be honored at the same March rally in New York.

Tower, Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., and Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson were lunching with Secretary of State Rusk today to discuss the Tshombe problem, the Texan's office said. Also invited were Sens. Albert Gore, D-Tenn.; Frank J. Lausche, D-Ohio; Frank Church, D-Idaho; Mike Mansfield, D-Mont.; Hubert H. Humphrey, D-Minn.; George Aiken, R-Vt.; and John J. Sparkman, D-Ala.

Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn., also was invited, but sent his regrets.

Tower had told newsmen in advance that he and Dodd intended to discuss the request of Tshombe, head of the Congolese Katanga government, for a visa to enter the United States.

Walker's invitation to appear at the rally sponsored by Young Americans for Freedom was withdrawn yesterday. The organization announced that it had advised the former general his appearance might be taken as an endorsement of his candidacy for governor of Texas.

A spokesman for Tower said the question of Walker's appearance was raised with both senators, who are to deliver major addresses at the rally, before the former Army troop commander jumped into the Texas gubernatorial race.

Tower, it was said, suggested that if Walker got into politics, he would become a partisan and that it might be well to ask him to withdraw from the rally.

After Walker's candidacy became official, the Young Americans for Freedom officials decided to make no change in the program, it was said.

Goldwater, it then was reported to have told the group he would not participate if Walker was retained. Tower apparently shared this feeling but did not take as blunt a position.

Walker Charges U.S. Aid to Red Plot

NEW YORK, Feb. 23 (UPI)—Resigned Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker has charged that since 1933 leaders in Washington have eroded constitutional government and "perpetuated . . . the Russian conspiracy."

Walker, who resigned from the Army in a dispute over troop indoctrination, made the charge in a filmed segment of a TV documentary on conservatism (CBS reports—"Thunder of the Right").

The former general, who now is a candidate for Governor of Texas, said:

"Since 1933, we have perpetrated and perpetuated a Frankenstein monster, the Russian conspiracy. Three decades of Potomac pretenders, including New Dealers, Fair Dealers, red herrings, co-existence artists, and UN one world, new frontiersmen, have conspired in the liquidation of our Constitutional Government by, for and of the people.

"It is not necessary to go into the motives or the architects of 16 years of disaster. When a football team loses all its games for 10 years, it is time to change the whole team."

Texas oil millionaire H. L. Hunt, in another segment, went back even further than Walker:

"I think Calvin Coolidge turned in the last successful Administration, and that's been a long time ago."

Hargis Assails Handling Of Gen. Walker's Case

Battling Billy James Hargis, taking time out in Santa Ana Thursday from a week-long Christian anti-communist crusade in Anaheim, paused long enough to scorch the "so-called liberals" who pride themselves as champions of civil rights.

Dr. Hargis said he was "stunned by their silence in regard to the treatment of Gen. Edwin A. Walker.

"Could it be that our liberal civil rights spokesmen are only political experts and not truly interested in the preservation of our Bill of Rights," Hargis asked.

Hargis, who resigned a pastorate in Oklahoma 12 years ago to launch a one-man fight against communism, will wind up his stay at Anaheim with talks tonight, Saturday and Sunday.

The Christian Crusade founder will speak each evening at 7:30 at the Central Baptist Church, 227 N. Magnolia. He has a fourth speech set Sunday afternoon at 2:30.

Hargis said he has often been frustrated during his anti-communist fight but never so discouraged as during the past few months. Gen. Walker's imprisonment during the Oxford, Miss. riots was a particular jolt, Hargis said.

"Gen. Walker was denied even basic rights," Hargis commented. "Without the consent of his family or a hearing he was whisked away from Mississippi to a mental hospital in Missouri.

"He was committed," Hargis continued, "on the findings of a psychiatrist who never examined him and by a judge who never saw him."

Hargis said the Walker incident indicated Attorney General Robert Kennedy was "more interested in silencing his political opponents" than he was in obeying the law.

"No minority group in America should sleep well tonight," the Oklahoman said. "This action smacks of dictatorship. You could expect this in Russia or Nazi Germany, but it is hard to believe this is happening in the United States."

Hargis said he wasn't defending Walker's presence in Mississippi.

"Personally I don't think he should have been there," he said. "But I am defending his rights as an American citizen. It is my hope that this extreme action will so arouse the American people that they will defeat every political liberal that seeks election in November."

Hargis' talks tonight through Sunday are entitled, "The Supreme Court Vs. God and Good Government," "Can America Survive Two More Years Under Kennedy," "The Facts About Communism and the Nation's Council of Churches," and "United Nations — The Greatest Hoax Ever Perpetrated on the American Public."

Hargis, incidentally, was greeted in Anaheim Monday by Paul Liefeld, principal of the Central Baptist School, who recalled he once before had met the roving crusader at the biblical city of Dothan, 75 miles north of Jerusalem in 1954.

Liefeld was at Dothan on an archeological expedition while Hargis was at work sending scripture-carrying balloons behind the Iron Curtain.

Walker Will Oppose Rockefeller Kennedy

Former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker arrived here Tuesday with headquarters in Tulsa, Okla. Both will speak at a rally in Shrine Auditorium at 7:30 tonight. This is the 29th city they have visited. Walker said audience responses have showed the people resent Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy and that he is losing votes for his brother's administration. Concerning Cuba, Walker said, "The people are interested in the Cuban Freedom Fighters and can't understand why the only overt active action against Castro is being cut off by the State Department."

He arrived in a rented bus as part of an Operation Midnight Ride troupe headed by evangelist Billy James Hargis, founder-director of Christian Crusade, an anti-Communist organization.

Walker Attacks Both Parties at Shrine Rally

Former General Also Blasts High Court, United Nations as Being Led by Leftists

Democrats, Republicans, the United Nations and the National Council of Churches all came under fire Wednesday night from the leaders of Operation M.D. (M.D. is the code name for the M.D. Ride).

Former Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker and Oklahoma evangelist Billy James Hargis closed out a nationwide speaking tour before an estimated 4,500 persons at Shrine Auditorium.

Walker, after leading the crowd in singing "Onward Christian Soldiers," blasted both of America's major political parties.

"Both the Democrats and the Republicans have stopped the advance of communism," he said. "We the people had better change our loyalty 100% from a party to our country."

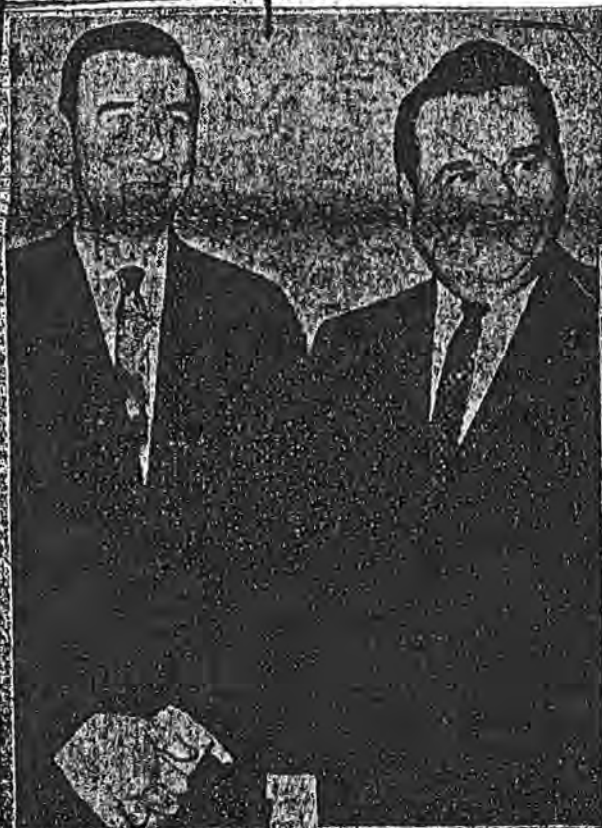

"The Democrats and Republicans support each other. The names Democrats and Republicans don't mean anything. One ordered troops into Little Rock and the other ordered troops to Mississippi."

"You have Prox. Bobby Kennedy, a nation's general of the United States. And look at your Supreme Court. It has gone to the left so far, it has entered itself three times."

Eisenhower put Earl Warren on the Supreme Court and (President) Kennedy put Arthur J. Goldberg there. "I don't see much choice."

Walker also rapped the United Nations and a United Nations Secretary General. "I think of being a Marxist," Hargis, founder and director of a Christian Crusade of the program, then said.

at the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People, and the National Council of Churches. Fifty NAACP pickets paraded with placards in front of the auditorium during the program. Other persons picketed the building with pro-Walker placards.

EDWIN A. WALKER

Walker Raps Bob Kennedy

Former Maj. Gen. Edwin Walker, who speaks in Shrine Auditorium tonight, has no love for Bob Kennedy.

He slashed out at the attorney general yesterday afternoon in a press conference at the Jonathan Club and added Gov. Nelson Rockefeller, the State Department and traitors to the list.

Walker is in Los Angeles on what he calls a nationwide "Midnight Ride" to alert Americans to the dangers of communism. In this latter-day Paul Revere venture, he is riding tandem with evangelist Billy James Hargis, founder-director of the Christian Crusade.

There is no doubt Bobby Kennedy is a liability to the Administration and is losing votes, Walker said. The public has shown it has no confidence in the attorney general.

Walker, who was arrested on federal charges of inciting riot during the Oxford Miss. racial school dispute continued:

We elected one Kennedy and Bobby makes it a loss.

Walker also said one of his main efforts is to keep Rockefeller out of the White House and defeat Kennedy in 1964.

In a far-ranging discussion, Walker also dealt with Cuba. "I'd take Cuba as Khrushchev took it and hold it as he has."

With the State Department: "The State Department is infiltrated with anti-Americans and they're responsible for our troubles with communism."

With the Defense Department: "Arthur Sylvester is muzzling the military and is managing news to the American people."

With Defense Secretary McNamara: "He's running the show in Cuba."

And further with Mississippi: "If they could negotiate 11 years on Berlin they could have negotiated 11 days at Oxford."

Walker: Ike, Kennedy, UN All Wrong

By GERRY MCCARTHY

Both major political parties, the United Nations and the National Council of Churches are today's main stumbling blocks to true democracy, according to Gen. Edwin Walker and evangelist Billy James Hargis.

Before more than 6200 last night in the Shrine Auditorium, Gen. Walker and Evangelist Hargis scored the Kennedy and Eisenhower Administrations for their "insincerity to the American people."

Walker and Hargis have been participating in "Operation: Midnight Ride," which started six weeks ago in Miami, Fla. At the auditorium last night Hargis and Walker gave a scathing denunciation of President Kennedy and his Administration.

In a choked-up voice, Gen. Walker opened his program by leading the audience in a rendition of "Onward, Christian Soldiers." Before lashing out at prior and present political parties Walker said:

"Our troops on foreign soil will get no word of this patriotic meeting. The whole free world begs to know where's America. What's our policy? They as well as all of us would like to know the answer to that."

"The people of East Germany, Viet Nam and countless other Iron Curtain countries beg for information of a patriotic meeting such as ours."

"The news of these meetings is suppressed. Our Administration apparently doesn't consider such news newsworthy."

Gen. Walker cited the reluctance of the citizens in joining the crusade against communism by saying:

"Neither party has stopped the advance of communism. We the people had better change our loyalty 100 per cent from our political party to our country."

"Both parties follow the United Nations. Both parties have given aid and assistance to our enemies. Liberals of both parties support each other. The Democrats and Republicans don't mean anything."

"You have now Bobby Kennedy as attorney general of the United States. And look at your Supreme Court! It has gone to the left so far it has encircled itself three times."

"Eisenhower put (Earl) Warren on the Supreme Court and (President) Kennedy put (Arthur J.) Goldberg there. I don't see much choice."

Gen. Walker told why he resigned his commission in the U.S. Army and also any affiliation with a political party, saying:

"I refuse to be controlled by any party. I refuse to be a member of any party that puts the United States troops under the direction of the United Nations."

"The United Nations has laid the United States wide open to invasion. The United Nations is a tool of Russia. We support an organization that is definitely out to kill democracy in our country."

Gen. Walker alleged three recent mistakes were made in President Kennedy's Administration, and said they were:

"His 'no win' policy; the disarmament program of this country and placing arms control under the United Nations, and the Cuba fiasco."

"As far as the Cuban situation is concerned, we should have done what Russia did—take over and hold it, no holds barred. Instead we didn't. Now we have an enemy only 90 miles from our borders."

"I would demand a full scale investigation of the State Department on this and many other mistakes they have made in the past few years."

Evangelist Hargis, founder and director of Christian Crusade, led off the program with blasts at the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People and the National Council of Churches.

Prior to the speeches, more than 100 pickets paraded in front of the auditorium boasting and condemning Gen. Walker and evangelist Hargis.

Following the speeches, John B. Rousselot, official of the John Birch Society, presented a plaque to Gen. Walker that described him as "the greatest living American."

Thomas Bradley, who upset Councilman Joe E. Hollingsworth in the primary, was one of the pickets, and said he was appearing as a member of the NAACP and a private citizen.

JOINT RALLY of the CHRISTIAN CRUSADE and "PRO-BLUE organized by [redacted] and General EDWIN A. WALKER respectively. b6 b7C

This rally was held at the Shrine Auditorium on April 3, 1963, at 7:30 p.m. Upon entering the Shrine Auditorium, there was observed approximately fifty (50) anti-Walker pickets parading in front of the Auditorium. Some of those known were: [redacted] b6 b7C

[redacted] The picket signs carried the NATIONAL ASSOCIATION FOR THE ADVANCEMENT OF COLORED PEOPLE sponsorship and set out to identify General WALKER as anti-Negro. Also parading in front of the Shrine were approximately sixty (60) pro-Walker demonstrators carrying placards praising General WALKER. The anti-Walker picket line was composed of approximately forty-two (42) Negroes and eight Caucasians. A pro-Walker picket line was entirely Caucasian.

Upon entering the meeting hall, a donation of one-dollar ($1.00) was taken. It is estimated that there were approximately 6300-6500 persons in attendance.

The meeting was opened by a prayer given by a Baptist Minister, name unknown; this was followed by the pledge of allegiance led by [redacted]

The first speaker of the evening was [redacted] who referred to the picket line in front of the Auditorium and their being sponsored by the NAACP. [redacted] stated that he had in the past not referred to the NAACP in any of his speeches but in the last three meetings that his organization had had, the NAACP had seen fit to picket. [redacted] said, "If its a fight they want, they've come to the right man." [redacted] then gave the facts that the NAACP was not a Negro organization at all but an organization run by a white group and a white leader. He referred to the statements made by the press and the "liberals", that the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY was "completely monolithic organization. If you want to see a real monolithic organization that has existed for years, take a look at the NAACP and yet you read nothing about the one-man leadership of this organization." b6 b7C

[redacted] then talked about the number of COMMUNIST speakers that were now appearing on the campuses of our United States Universities, relating that the apologists, liberals, and do-gooders call this academic freedom, freedom of speech, and intellectualism and yet, when the pro-Americans, "right-wingers", tried to get on campus, they are referred to as the stupid set and not allowed on campus. "All I can say is, thank God I'm a stupid pro-American."

[ ] then related about the thousands and thousands of parcels of mail coming into the United States from the Soviet Union relating that the COMMUNIST PARTY every year sent in more than fifty (50) different publications attacking the United States. Prior to the time of the Kennedy administration, this was stopped, but now that KENNEDY is in with one of his seven dwarfs, DEAN RUSK, they not only have lifted the ban on the CP mail coming into the United States, but now we pay the postage to have it delivered. You ask, how can we stop this; By breaking off diplomatic relations with the Communists.

[ ] related to the event of sending 26,000 troops to insure the attendance of [ ] because according to little Bobby, (referring to KENNEDY), this was the law of the land as set forth according to BOBBY by the Supreme Court. Maybe BOBBY doesn't understand that the Supreme Court is not a law-making body assuming and giving BOBBY the benefit of the doubt, that the Supreme Court were a law-making body, we might ask why BOBBY has not forced the COMMUNIST PARTY members to register under the law of the land. This law has been violated since 1961 and no Communist has registered to this date. In [ ] opinion, the only reason that the Kennedys forced the integration issue was a vote-getting move for the 1963 elections.

[ ] then referred to the Communist Party program stating that their number four world-wide objective was to rid the United States of the HOUSE COMMITTEE ON UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES. He then referred back to the NAACP and REVEREND MARTIN LUTHER KING, telling about KING's attempt to get Presidential clemency for FRANK WILKINSON, head of the anti-HCUA movement.

[ ] then went in to the CP domination of the NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES and their stand on being against the House Committee, for Red China, and their general agreement with the Communist Party stand on most issues. He stated that the NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES was a typical example of wolves dressed in sheep's clothing.

[ ] spoke of the 19 "clergymen" who are now touring the United States from the Soviet Union calling them agents of the Communist conspiracy. These 19 clergymen were here at the invitation of the NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES and the National Council was aiding the Communist conspiracy. He then stated that the National Council will start this coming year to bring more clergymen from the USSR to the United States as educators in our cemeteries, he rapidly corrected this word and said seminaries. Not only will these agents be teaching in our seminaries, but they will bring "students" with them from the Soviet Union purportedly for an education in religion. He then recommended that the House Committee do a complete investigation on the NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CHURCHES. [ ] closed his speech by recommending books, literature, and organizations that patriotic Americans should buy and be members of. He highly recommended the JOHN BIRCH SOCIETY.

The next order of business was a collection for money to support the two organizations responsible for this meeting. [ ] explained that the money would be divided equally between the two organizations. [ ] then introduced General EDWIN A. WALKER, Resigned.

General WALKER went over to speak to the organist and he immediately started leading the audience in singing - Onward Christian Soldiers. WALKER started by stating that after he had seen the conspiracy in Government, he had resigned from the Military to be free. He stated that he refuses to be any part of the United Nations organization and that both parties, Republican and Democrat, stand for the United Nations and their no-win policy and have teamed up with the enemy. Neither party has done anything to stop the advance of Communism. Its about time that we change our loyalty from a party to a country. At this time, General WALKER looked down at a photographer who had been standing up waiting to take a photograph for about five minutes and WALKER asked him to leave and all the rest of the photographers to, which they did. WALKER then went on stating that there was little difference between the two parties. One administration had gone into Little Rock and the other had gone into Mississippi. WALKER talked about the Korean no-win policy and how the American troops would use their artillery to smash the emplacement of the enemy one day and the next day the United Nations would order them to cease fire until the enemy could rebuild their emplacements. The administration used the excuse for their non-win policy that the supply line had extended to such a degree that it would be impossible to fight a winning war. WALKER then said I wonder what excuse now they'll use in Cuba as our supply line will only need to be 90 miles long and their's will have to be 7000 miles long. He stated that all we would have needed to take Cuba during the invasion was a loud bee and six destroyers sitting off the coast.

KENNEDY may soon have to explain why he keeps talking about an all-out Atomic war when for the last 20 years, there has not been one missile fired yet and in most cases there hasn't been a fifteen cent shell fired. WALKER stated that BOBBY KENNEDY was the greatest liability to the present administration. He explained that during the last two administrations each of the presidents had a brother they could throw the blame on, IKE had MILTON, and JACK has BOBBY. WALKER said that during this entire administration, the administration had conspired with a satanic force and in every case, we have lost. WALKER's last statement was that when he was still in the Military, DEAN ACHESON made a speech before the War College and stated, "There is no place in international relations for morality."

After WALKER's speech, [redacted] said he had a surprise for the audience. He then introduced JOHN ROUSSELOT. ROUSSELOT gave a short speech regarding the Birch Society and some other matters already covered in this report. b6 b7C

There were no unusual happenings either inside or outside of the meeting hall. See literature handed out in front and in the meeting and newspaper clippings, as listed:
